DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 3/31/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
2. As per footnote number 2 on page 2 of the applicant's response, it is not clear what Id is referring to.
3. Applicant argues that Sato does not teach the claimed limitation of "assigning a code associated with each base station group or a code associated with each network type to which said base station group belongs as said second spreading code" since Sato teaches that the third spreading code (long code) is assigned from a base station long code number and one base station long code number is different from a second base station long code number while in applicant's invention, the long code is assigned to a base station group or network type.
4. The office respectfully traverses this argument since a base station group can comprise one base station. There is no limitation in the claim that the base station group is required to include more than one base station.

Response to Amendment

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sato USPN 6130884.
2. See prior action for details.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
